

Green $aves Green Workshop

March 30, 2016 at Franklin Commons, Phoenixville, PA

A workshop for Planners, Engineers, Landscape Architects, Municipal Officials, Developers, and Community Residents

AGENDA

- 8:30-9:00AM Registration and Light Breakfast
- 9:00-9:10AM Welcome and Introduction: Pennsylvania Environmental Council (PEC), Partnership for the Delaware Estuary (PDE), Green Valleys Watershed Association (GVA)
- 9:10-9:25AM Local Case Study 1 – Jean Krack, Phoenixville Borough Manager
A Borough Manager’s perspective on stormwater management: Face the facts and the status of Phoenixville, PA.
- 9:30-10:30AM Local Case Study 2: Vision Development – Michelle Adams, Meliora Design
A vision for Phoenixville, PA: Understanding and applying nature’s principles in stormwater management design to conserve resources and accommodate development. Case study examples provided.
- 10:30-10:40AM Break
- 10:40-11:25AM Local Case Study 3 – Tavis Dockwiller, Viridian Landscape Studio
Green stormwater infrastructure (GSI) in the field: putting GSI to work and how businesses and residents manage stormwater
- 11:30-12:00PM Local Case Study 4 – Edward Theurkauf RLA, Theurkauf Design & Planning
Integrating green stormwater infrastructure (GSI) through planning practices. Regulatory requirements and municipal tools: MS4, Comp Plan, Official Maps and Ordinances. Using these tools to work together.
- 12:00-1:30PM Lunch and Tour of Franklin Commons
Join us as we visit the on-site green stormwater infrastructure at Franklin Commons.
Lunch will be provided.
Wear comfortable shoes/clothing and dress appropriately for weather conditions.
Leaders: Franklin Commons Owner, Marian Moskowitz and Green Valleys Watershed Association